CORPORATE AND PRIVATE EVENTS AT THE V&A

Reflecting its reputation as the world's greatest museum of art and design, the V&A's magnificent South Kensington building is itself a unique gem of Victorian architecture. A treasure house teeming with collections of fabulous scope and diversity, the Museum boasts extraordinary rooms and spaces which offer exceptional possibilities for entertaining in a prestigious central London location.

It is also possible to hold an exclusive viewing of an exhibition during evening events.

The V&A is also a unique venue for filming and location hire. An exciting variety of venues are listed below, with information about each space to help you select the appropriate location for your event.

THE MEDIEVAL & RENAISSANCE GALLERIES

Over ten years in the planning, two years in the building and showcasing the world's largest collection from the period, the V&A's Medieval & Renaissance Galleries opened in 2009 to great critical acclaim.

The ten new galleries include The Paul and Jill Ruddock Gallery. This gallery is conveniently located next to the Dome and is a stunning space for receptions, pre-dinner drinks and dinners.

Large scale works, once part of impressive Renaissance buildings are displayed in the context of a cityscape. Dramatic sculptures by Giambologna and others stand in a setting evocative of a courtyard and garden. The choir screen from the Cathedral of St John at 's-Hertogenbosch in the Netherlands, one of the largest objects on show, provides a powerful backdrop for events.

THE JOHN MADEJSKI GARDEN

The V&A's garden and is one of the most elegant outdoor venues in London.

The John Madejski Garden is a tranquil space featuring a paved ellipse with water jets between steps, which are illuminated at night. The design allows the beautiful 19th-century terracotta facades to be more visible and provides flexibility to transform the space for different types of events. The garden is one of London's hidden treasures, and is particularly magical when lit.

Essential information

Reception 600 guests

Pre-dinner drinks 400 guests

Hire fee

From £8,000

Marquees are not permitted in the garden. The Dome provides an alternative venue in case of rain and is included in the venue hire. Smoking is only permitted in the garden.

FASHION GALLERIES

The Fashion Galleries re-open in spring 2012 and will host a series of stunning temporary fashion exhibitions. The dress collection covers four centuries of European fashionable dress, from the beginning of the 18th century to the latest creations of the 21st century, and from the ornate richness of a court mantua to the minimalism of contemporary couture.

The Fashion Galleries are new venues for hire, as entertaining in these spaces has not been possible in the past.

FILMING AND PHOTOSHOOTS

The V&A offers a unique setting for filming and photoshoots, with impressive galleries, staircases, period rooms and a landscaped garden. We welcome enquiries for feature films, television documentaries, interviews and commercials. Recent productions include Hugo, The Oxford Murders, Franklyn, Spooks, New Tricks, Celebrity Come Dine With Me and Bargain Hunt.

The V&A also regularly accommodates photographic shoots and most recently has provided a location for Vanity Fair, the Telegraph Magazine and Topman.

We can accommodate film crews outside the V&A's opening hours (pre 10.00, post 17.45, except Fridays). For some locations we may be able to arrange a day-time slot. Please give as much notice as possible for filming, at least five working days.

Filming is also available at an alternative V&A site in Olympia. Originally the headquarters to the Post Office Savings Bank, this Victorian building offers an imposing façade, courtyard, spiral staircase and a rooftop with views over West London. It recently played host the highly acclaimed Tinker Tailor Soldier Spy.

For further information and a filming pack please contact Rachel Lloyd: r.lloyd@vam.ac.uk / 020 7942 2841.
